The true measure of a home's value extends beyond the square meters of its living space.

A well-built home may raise our standard of living. But to raise our quality of life, a good home needs to be mindful of its immediate surroundings.

Welcome to The Crest. Here, every element is designed with the next larger context in mind. Beginning with you and your loved ones, these distinguished homes afford generous space for everyone to live comfortably together.

Water Meets Land

The landscape of The Crest is designed to give you an intimate and unique experience of nature. A remarkable waterscape with swimming pools that span the development, the central lagoon is an open expansive oasis of beauty, harmony and serenity. Here you can swim amidst nature and wonder at the beauty of the surroundings.

Designed to meet individual preferences, The Crest is divided into Island Villas and Towers by the Meadow. The Island Villas, consisting of four blocks no more than five storeys high, afford the luxury to be close to nature. Here, living spaces boast generous nature, air, and volume. An extension of the estate's very qualities, naturally.

The generosity of air and space also extends to the Towers by the Meadow where the boundary of your home is as infinite as the sky itself.

With three blocks soaring 23 storeys, a host of expansive and distant views of the city and island await the lucky few aspiring to new heights.
